CURevl Announces New Product Launch with Ohio Catholic Federal Credit Union

Providing Credit Union Members with Low Cost Education Finance Options

Richardson, Texas— August 16, 2019— CU REVL LLC (CURevl), a Texas-based Credit Union Service Organization (CUSO), announced today that Ohio Catholic Federal Credit Union of Garfield Heights, OH, has joined the CUSO as a referral affiliate. Through the partnership, Ohio Catholic members will now have access to competitive in-school student loans and student loan refinance products to meet their educational finance needs. The loans are disbursed and serviced by College Ave Student Loans under an agreement with CURevl to provide their CUSO member partners multiple turnkey solutions with private student loans for higher education.

“Our team is excited that Ohio Catholic Federal Credit Union selected CURevl as their partner for higher education lending. This is our first client in the Buckeye State and we look forward to having them on our team,” stated Greg Hagan, Senior Vice President of Sales at CURevl. “The CURevl program offers yet another alternative for our credit union partners to meet the needs of their members, which enhances our ability to deliver on our mission of Connecting Families to Credit Unions and delivering Student Loan Solutions that benefit the community.”

“We have many members that need both financing and refinancing options with current student loan debt,” said Todd Turner, CEO of Ohio Catholic Federal Credit Union. “The partnership with CURevl provides us the opportunity to better serve our members by offering a simplified solution to help them better manage their student loans,” adds Turner.
