CURevl Announces New Product Launch with CORE Credit Union

Providing Credit Union Members with Low Cost Education Finance Options

Richardson, Texas— June 10, 2019 — CU REVL LLC (CURevl), a Texas-based Credit Union Service Organization (CUSO), announced today that CORE Credit Union of Statesboro, GA has joined the CUSO as a referral affiliate. Through the partnership, CORE Credit Union members will now have access to competitive in-school student loans and student loan refinance products to meet their educational finance needs. The loans are disbursed and serviced by College Ave Student Loans under an agreement with CURevl to provide their CUSO member partners multiple turnkey solutions with private student loans for higher education.

“Having CORE Credit Union select CURevl as their partner for higher education lending is exciting since Georgia Southern University is in their backyard” stated Greg Hagan, SVP Sales of CURevl. “The CURevl program offers yet another alternative for our credit union partners to meet the needs of their members which enhances our ability to deliver on our mission of Connecting Families to Credit Unions and delivering Student Loan Solutions that benefit the communities in Statesboro, Savannah and surrounding counties in Georgia.”

“Being in a college town helping our future borrowers and members in the communities we serve is highly rewarding providing individuals their dreams of attending college” said Lisa Cox, VP of Lending of CORE Credit Union. “CURevl provides us with a simplified solution in servicing our members while adding value to our CORE vision of membership. These members graduate, receive jobs and start families in our community and will continue to trust CORE Credit Union for their financial needs.”
