CURevl Announces New Product Launch with Educators Credit Union

Providing Credit Union Members with Low Cost Education Finance Options

Richardson, Texas— June 6, 2019 — CU REVL LLC (CURevl), a Texas-based credit union service organization (CUSO), announced today that Educators Credit Union of Waco, Texas has joined the CUSO as a referral affiliate. Through the partnership, Educators Credit Unions members will now have access to competitive in-school student loans and student loan refinance products to meet their education finance needs. The loans are disbursed and serviced by College Ave Student Loans under a recent agreement with CURevl to provide CUSO member credit unions a turnkey private education loan product.

“We are extremely pleased that Educators Credit Union selected CURevl as their partner for education lending” stated Greg Hagan, SVP of Sales at CURevl. “The CURevl referral program offers yet another alternative for our credit union partners to meet the needs of their members and enhances our ability to deliver on our mission of Connecting Families to Credit Unions and delivering Student Loan Solutions that benefit students and families.”

“Our commitment to our members and communities that we serve is to provide products and services that enable everybody to realize their dreams of attending college” said Monica Krenek, Vice President of Lending at Educators Credit Union. “CURevl has provided us with a simplified solution while complementing our mission in servicing our members and adding value. Higher education should be challenging ... funding it should be simple and straight-forward.”
