

Providing Credit Union Members with Low-Cost Education Finance Options

CURevl Announces Their New Partnership With FRB Federal Credit Union

Galveston, Texas, May 24, 2021 - CU REVL LLC (CURevl), a Texas-based credit union service organization (CUSO), has partnered with FRB Federal Credit Union of Washington, DC to create an education finance program specifically for their members. FRB Federal Credit Union members will have access to competitive in-school education loans and refinance products to meet their needs.

We are thrilled to be chosen as FRB Federal Credit Union’s partner for higher education finance,” said Tim Kulesha, COO at CURevl. “We’re proud to offer solutions that enable our credit union partners to deliver education finance solutions that work for the students and families in their community. Credit unions are uniquely positioned to attract and grow their membership with a generation of socially conscious young adults that share their values.”

A college education is a stepping stone to a better financial future.” said Theresa Trimble, CEO of FRB Federal Credit Union. “We are excited to make college a reality for more of our members through our partnership with the great people of CU REVL.”
