CURevl Launches New Product with Coastal Community And Teachers Credit Union

Providing Credit Union Members with Low Cost Education Finance Options

Richardson, Texas, March 4, 2020 — CU REVL LLC (CURevl), a Texas-based credit union service organization (CUSO), has partnered with Coastal Community And Teachers Credit Union of Corpus Christi, Texas, as a referral affiliate. Through the partnership, Coastal Community And Teachers members will now have access to competitive in-school education loans and education loan refinance products to meet their needs. The loans are disbursed and serviced by College Ave Student Loans under an agreement with CURevl to provide CUSO member credit unions a turnkey private education loan product.

“We are thrilled to be chosen as Coastal Community And Teachers Credit Union’s partner for higher-education finance, said Greg Hagan, SVP of Sales at CURevl. “We know that member’s needs are diverse, and we’re proud to offer a portfolio of products that enable our credit union partners to deliver education finance solutions that benefit more students and families in the community.”

“Our commitment to our members and to the communities we serve, includes providing options to enable students to afford the cost of attending college” said Gina Prince, President & CEO of Coastal Community And Teachers Credit Union. “CURevl has provided us with a simplified solution which complements our mission to assist our members and potential members, while adding value to our core member benefits. Higher education should be challenging, funding it should be simple and straight-forward.”
