CURevl Announces Alabama Credit Union As New Affiliate For Student Loans

Providing Credit Union Members with Low Cost Education Finance Options

Richardson, Texas— June 10, 2019 — CU REVL LLC (CURevl), a Texas-based credit union service organization (CUSO), announced today that Alabama Credit Union based in Tuscaloosa, Alabama has joined the CUSO as a referral affiliate. Through this new association, Alabama Credit Union will be able to provide their members access to competitive in-school student loans and student loan refinance products through the CURevl referral program. CURevl has partnered with College Ave to provide their member credit unions exclusive access to turnkey private education loan products. Under the program, the loans are disbursed and serviced by College Ave Student Loans.

“We recognize the importance Alabama Credit Union places on being able to deliver quality education financing options to their members and we are very pleased that they selected CURevl as their partner for this new opportunity” said Jon Wollman, Chief Operating Officer at CURevl. “The program will allow the credit union to continue helping their members finance their education costs while in school as well as after graduation. This is the CURevl mission, Connecting Families to Credit Unions and delivering Student Loan Solutions that benefit students and families.”

Benson Bolling, Chief Lending Officer at Alabama Credit Union added “With our strong connection to colleges and universities in the state, having a student loan program that delivers both value and service to our members is extremely important. CURevl provided us a program that not only meet our needs, but did so in an easy manner with unparalleled support.”
