CURevl Announces New Product Launch with FRB Federal Credit Union

Providing Credit Union Members with Low Cost Education Finance Options

Richardson, Texas— February 1, 2019 — CU REVL LLC (CURevl), a Texas-based credit union service organization (CUSO), announced today that FRB Federal Credit Union of Washington, DC has joined the CUSO as a referral affiliate. Through the partnership, FRB Federal Credit Union members will now have access to competitive in-school student loans and student loan refinance products to meet their educational finance needs. The loans are disbursed and serviced by College Ave Student Loans under a recent agreement with CURevl to provide CUSO member credit unions a turnkey private education loan product.

“We are extremely pleased that FRB Federal Credit Union selected CURevl as their partner for education lending” stated Lance Teinert, CEO of CURevl. “The CURevl referral program offers yet another alternative for our credit union partners to meet the needs of their members and enhances our ability to deliver on our mission of Connecting Families to Credit Unions and delivering Student Loan Solutions that benefit students and families.”

“We are committed to helping our members realize their dreams of attending college” said Theresa Trimble, CEO of FRB Federal Credit Union. “CURevl provided us with a competitive loan program coupled with wonderful customer service, allowing us to continue adding value for our members. A college education should be challenging; funding it doesn't have to be.”
